Centrepont Alliance Appoints Brendon Glass as CFO

Centrepont Alliance Limited (ASX: CAF) (“Centrepont” or “the Company”) is pleased to announce its appointment of Brendon Glass to the position of Chief Financial Officer (CFO), effective 9 June 2020.

Mr Glass brings significant operational experience to Centrepont in wealth and asset management businesses, in addition to his credentials as a CFO and advisor.

As National Head of Strategy and NSW Desk Head for UBS Wealth Management between 2011 and 2016, Mr Glass led a team of client advisers at a significant time of industry change. Between 2007 and 2011 Mr Glass served as Divisional Chief Financial Officer for Macquarie Private Wealth, part of Macquarie Group Ltd (ASX: MQG), where he led financial control functions, transformation management programs and drove several synergistic acquisitions.

Most recently, he has held CFO and interim advisory roles in diverse fast-paced growth and transformation environments, including Pallion, Australia’s largest precious metals services business, Aquis Farm, an integrated horse breeding and racing business, and Strategic Collision Repair Group, a conglomeration of integrated auto body repair businesses. Mr Glass joins Centrepont with comprehensive ASX-listed, company secretarial and investor relations experience in senior finance roles.

Commenting on the appointment, Centrepont CEO, Angus Benbow, said:

“I am delighted to welcome Brendon to Centrepont and to our Executive Team. He brings a unique blend of capabilities and experience which are ideally suited to our business as we continue to execute our Strategic Refresh and focus on the growth opportunities presented in the market.”

“Brendon understands the drivers of value for adviser groups, having led some of Australia’s highest-profile financial advice teams over the past decade. He brings a track record of delivering successful outcomes for shareholders by driving organic and M&A-led growth while optimising capital management for businesses across a range of sectors.”

The release of this announcement has been authorised by the Chief Executive Officer.
