9.15 am	The proposed shake up of default insurance in super Effective 1 July 2019 the federal Government announced it will change the insurance arrangements for certain categories of superannuation members. Insurance will move from default framework to an opt-in basis which has some unintended consequences for certain members of superannuation funds. We will also look at client and practice strategies to ensure that your clients are not part of this unintended consequence. Kyleigh Perkins, CommInsure David Spiteri, Centrepoint Alliance
10.45 am	Morning tea
11.00 am	Underwriting in the digital age – exploring dynamic underwriting Underwriting has changed little in decades and is a time consuming and onerous task on both advisers and clients. As we move further into the digital age, customer expectations are changing, and this requires insurers to be more engaged, more intuitive and more responsive to customer needs. MLC
