1.0 PURPOSE AND AUTHORITY

1.1 Purpose

The purpose of this Nomination & Remuneration Committee Charter is to specify the authority delegated to the Nomination & Remuneration Committee ("Committee") by the board of directors ("Board" or "Directors") of Centrepont Alliance Limited ("Company") and to set out the role, responsibilities, membership and operation of the Committee.

This Charter is designed to support the Company's compliance with the ASX Corporate Governance Principles and Recommendations (4th Edition) and applicable provisions of the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth).

1.2 Authority

The Committee is a committee of the Board, established in accordance with the Company's constitution and authorised by the Board to assist it in fulfilling its statutory and regulatory responsibilities. It has the authority and power to exercise the role and responsibilities set out in this charter and under any separate resolutions of the Board granted to it from time to time.

2.0 ROLE OF THE COMMITTEE

2.1 Nomination

The Committee assists and advises the Board on:

- (a) Director recruitment, selection, and appointment practices;
- (b) development and implementation of a process for performance evaluation and criteria for the Board, its committees and Directors;
- (c) Board composition to ensure that it is conducive to making informed decisions with the benefit of a variety of perspectives and skills in the best interests of the Company as a whole;
- (d) induction and continuing professional development programs for Directors;
- (e) ensuring there are plans in place to manage the succession of the CEO and other senior executives; and
- (f) appointments, re-election, terminations, and succession planning of the Board, the Chief Executive Officer (CEO), the Company Secretary, the Chief Financial Officer (CFO) and all other direct reports of the CEO (hereinafter collectively referred to as "Senior Executives").

2.2 Remuneration

The Committee assists and advises the Board on remuneration policies and practices for the Board, Senior Executives, and other employees. The policies and practices are designed to:

- (a) enable the Company to attract, retain and motivate Directors, Senior Executives and employees who will create value for shareholders;
- (b) be fair and appropriate, having regard to the general pay environment and the performance of the Company and the relevant Director, Executive or employee; and
- (c) comply with relevant legal requirements.

2.3 Delegation

The Committee may delegate administrative or operational matters to management where appropriate. However, the Committee retains responsibility for making recommendations to the Board on all material matters relating to Board and Senior Executive nominations, remuneration, and succession planning.

3.0 NOMINATION RESPONSIBILITIES

The Committee is responsible for:

- (a) assessing the necessary and desirable competencies of Board members;
- (b) making recommendations regarding the size of the Board so that the size encourages efficient decision making;
- (c) developing and reviewing the process for the recruitment, selection (including the undertaking of appropriate background and probity checks) and removal of directors and Senior Executives;
- (d) identifying and making recommendations to the Board for the appointment of new Board member candidates, having regard to their skills, experience and expertise;
- (e) developing and reviewing induction procedures for new appointees to the Board to enable them to effectively discharge their duties;
- (f) developing, implementing and reviewing continuing education measures to enhance Director competencies, keep Directors up to date and enhance Directors' knowledge and skills;
- (g) overseeing the implementation of a process for the evaluation of the performance of both individual Directors to be elected or re-elected in a given year, the performance of Board committees and the performance of the Board as a whole, using both measurable and qualitative indicators;
- (h) reviewing the time required from non-executive Directors and whether non-executive Directors are meeting these requirements;
- (i) reviewing Board and Senior Executive succession plans and processes, including for the CEO and other Senior Executive positions to maintain an appropriate balance of skills, experience and expertise;
- (j) overseeing and reviewing the Company's Board Skills Matrix and identifying any gaps in skills, experience and diversity required to meet the Company's strategic objectives;
- (k) overseeing the Company's diversity objectives, including measurable gender diversity targets, and monitoring progress against those objectives;
- (l) reviewing the performance of the Chairperson and reporting the results of the evaluation to the Board; and
- (m) liaising with other Board committees as required.

4.0 REMUNERATION RESPONSIBILITIES

4.1 General

The Committee is responsible for developing, reviewing and making recommendations to the Board on:

- (a) the remuneration framework for the Chairperson and the non-executive Directors, including expense reimbursement;
- (b) the Company's policy and practices on remuneration for the CEO and Senior Executives (including base pay, incentive payments, equity-based awards, superannuation and other retirement rights, employment contracts), any changes to remuneration packages and recommending proposed awards after performance evaluation procedures;
- (c) the Company's recruitment, retention and termination policies for the CEO and Senior Executives and any changes to those policies;

- (d) incentive schemes, if appropriate, for the CEO and Senior Executives; and
- (e) equity based plans, if appropriate, for the CEO, Senior Executives and other employees.

4.2 Incentive schemes and equity-based remuneration

For any incentive schemes or equity-based plans which are adopted, the Committee is responsible for:

- (a) reviewing their terms (including any performance hurdles for equity-based plans);
- (b) overseeing their administration;
- (c) considering whether shareholder approval is required for the schemes or plans and for any changes to them; and
- (d) ensuring that payments and awards of equity are made in accordance with their terms and any shareholder approval.

4.3 Structure of remuneration

In fulfilling these responsibilities, the Committee will ensure that:

- (a) a clear distinction is maintained between the structure of non-executive Directors' remuneration and that of Executives;
- (b) a proportion of Executive Directors' remuneration is structured in a manner designed to link rewards to corporate and individual performances; and
- (c) the remuneration framework aligns with the Company's purpose, values, strategic direction and risk appetite.

4.4 Reporting

The Committee will liaise with all other committees as appropriate but in particular the Group Audit, Risk and Compliance Committee in relation to the Company's remuneration-related reporting in the financial statements and remuneration report required by the Corporations Act.

The Committee will ensure that all remuneration disclosures are accurate, balanced and comply with applicable legal and regulatory requirements.

5.0 DELEGATION

The Committee may delegate any of its powers and responsibilities as the Committee thinks appropriate for the administration of Director, Senior Executive and employee share, option or other plans, to any Senior Executive. However, the Committee retains oversight of the design, approval and governance of such plans.

6.0 MEMBERSHIP

6.1 Composition and size

The Committee will consist of a minimum of two members, both of whom are independent, non-executive Directors.

6.2 Chairperson

The Chairperson of the Committee must be an independent non-executive Director and should not be the Chairperson of the Board. The Chairperson of the Committee is appointed by the Board. If, for a particular Committee meeting, the Committee Chairperson is not present within 10 minutes of the nominated starting time of the meeting, the Committee may elect a Chairperson for the meeting.

6.3 Secretary

The Company Secretary, or their delegate, is the secretary of the Committee.

7.0 COMMITTEE MEETINGS AND PROCESS

7.1 Meetings

Meetings and proceedings of the Committee are governed by the provisions in the Company's constitution regulating meetings and proceedings of the Board and committees of the Board in so far as they are applicable and not inconsistent with this charter.

7.2 Frequency and calling of meetings

The Committee will meet as frequently as required to perform its functions, and at least twice each financial year. The Chairperson must call a meeting of the Committee if requested by any member of the Committee, the external auditor, the internal auditor or the Chairperson of the Board.

7.3 Quorum

Two directors constitute a quorum for meetings of the Committee.

7.4 Attendance by management and advisers

The Committee Chairperson may invite the CEO, CFO, other Senior Executives, directors who are not members of the Committee and external advisers to attend meetings of the Committee.

7.5 Conflicts

No member of the Committee will participate in decisions relating to their own remuneration.

All members must disclose any actual or potential conflicts of interest, and such conflicts must be managed in accordance with the Company's policies.

7.6 Agenda and documents

The secretary will distribute the agenda and any related documents to all Committee members and other attendees before each proposed meeting.

7.7 Minutes

The secretary will keep minute books to record the proceedings and resolutions of Committee meetings.

The Chairperson of the Committee, or delegate, will report to the Board after each Committee meeting.

Minutes of Committee meetings will be included in the papers for the next Board meeting after each Committee meeting.

7.8 Access to information and advisers

The Committee will have the appropriate resources to discharge its duties and responsibilities, including engaging counsel, accountants or other experts and professional advisors as it considers necessary or appropriate. This may include requesting management or engaging external remuneration consultants to provide information, documents, or advice to the Committee. The Committee may interview management.

8.0 COMMITTEE'S PERFORMANCE EVALUATION

The Committee will review its performance annually, or whenever there are major changes to the management structure of the Company, and report to the Board.

The performance evaluation will have regard to the extent to which it has met its responsibilities in terms of this charter.

9.0 REVIEW AND PUBLICATION OF THE CHARTER

The Committee will review its charter at least annually and recommend any changes to the Board

The charter may be amended by resolution of the Board.

The charter will be available on the Company's website <http://www.centrepoinalliance.com.au/investor-centre/corporate-governance/>.
